A change in the power lines at the pumping plant will bring greater efficiency in production, stated the

6.21 Inches of Rain Falls Since Friday

May rains hit the Panhandle this week, starting Friday afternoon and continuing until this morning. The total moisture in Canyon from Friday afternoon until 7:30 o'clock Wednesday morning measured 6.21 inches.

Most of the moisture fell Tuesday and Tuesday night. This moisture measured 5.68 inches in Canyon. While most sections of the Panhandle received moisture, the amounts varied in different towns.

A heavy shower fell in Canyon Friday evening, starting at 4:30 o'clock and continuing for an hour. Some hail fell with this moisture. The total measured .48 inches of moisture.

Sunday night a light shower fell, which measured only .05 of an inch. The big rain started about 10:30 Tuesday morning, and continued at intermittent intervals throughout the day. At 6:00 o'clock Tuesday evening the moisture measured 2.18 inches. But the big rain was still to come.

Heavy rain fell throughout Tuesday night, and Wednesday morning at 7:30 o'clock the moisture measured 3.50 inches for the night, or a total of 5.68 inches for the Tuesday and Tuesday night period.

According to reports from over the Panhandle the rains have been general. Stockmen were beginning to wonder about the May rains, and to worry about being forced to continue feeding their cattle. This will be a God-send for the range lands. The streets of Canyon were curbed with water this morning, and Tierra Blanca creek south of Canyon was out of its banks.

Rain still continues, and the weather department in Amarillo says that showers will continue until Thursday when it will clear up.

A tornado was reported in the air west of Canyon Tuesday morning, but it dipped to the ground in only one place and did no damage. It was two years ago Tuesday that the big storm hit South Amarillo and blew away a large section of houses located in Randall county.

All of the Randall county cows stand high in classification in the association.

Children' Theater To Reopen In June

Canyon's children's theater, in operation since last October, will close for the remainder of May, but will reopen the third week in June when the summer recreation program gets underway. The theater, one of the few of its kind in Texas, has been under the direction of Carl Michell, a student of W. T. S. C.

The group put on the play "Wizard of Oz" in January, and it was a successful production. The group has been working on a second production, but because of the crowded program at the college, it was deemed best that the play be included in the summer theater program.

Mrs. Cecil E. Massey will direct the program throughout the summer with the aid of professional help from teachers throughout the Panhandle. Mr. Tolliver, chairman of the speech department, has offered his services in making the Children's Theater an outstanding feature for the summer students.

An announcement concerning plans for the summer session of the Theater group will be made at a later date.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cole of Abilene visited in the parental G. B. Combs home over the week-end. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Cole and Mr. and Mrs. Combs visited Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Dunsworth in Gruver.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ivey and son Mike spent the week-end in Childress.

Speaker Friday Issues Warning Coming Dangers

An economic reckoning is past due, according to Dan D. Casement, Kansas cattleman and student of history and economics.

Casement spoke Friday night at the annual banquet of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society.

Cattle are too high, due to the artificial economy which is practiced in Washington, stated this observer who has operated ranches in the west for more than 50 years. There will be a big blow-up, but we will save our freedom, because freedom is an instinct.

Casement derided the prolonged efforts of Washington to bring economic security to the people of all the world. Only enlightened capitalism will save this nation.

The speaker paid tribute to his father, General Casement, who finished construction on the Union Pacific Railroad just 92 years ago last Thursday. The father taught his son the dignity of hard labor.

At the age of 10 years the family was brought to the plains of Kansas and Colorado where young Casement got his start on the hard road to national fame in the cattle and horse business. He disclaimed the title of being the biggest cattle feeder in the nation, but is probably the best known.

There were more than 275 reservations for the banquet, which was held in the College Cafeteria.

Mrs. Emma Rogers Died Friday at Age of 85 Years

The Griggs-Warren Funeral Home was in charge of arrangement.

First Depositor Named in First National Building

The new vaults in the new First National Bank building has had its first depositor. From all indications the 18 inch walls of the new vaults, built of steel and concrete, will be able to hold the deposit for the moment. However, when the floor of the new building was run Tuesday, it was necessary to move the deposit to a truck cab.

The deposit happened to be three little puppies from a stray black dog who sought safety in the vault of the bank, and is being cared for by the workmen on the building. For fear of puppy tracks in the fresh concrete, the litter and mother dog had to be transferred to a point of safety.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wooten of Parnell, Texas, visited in the parental W. J. Wooten Sr. home over the week-end.

Miss Frances Alice Harp of Lovington, New Mexico, spent the week-end in the parental Guy Harp home.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS

Reader Objects to Stand on the Big Debate in Capitol

The Canyon News was eaten out this week because of last week's editorial regarding the MacArthur case. We were accused of being opposed to the General and favorable to the administration.

As a matter of record, which we have tried time and time again to publish, we hold no brief for either MacArthur or for the President in this muddle. Our hearts go out to the boys who are fighting in Korea, most of them American boys who are paying the penalty of this political, or military, or economic mess in which we are engaged. You should have selected the category under which this war falls as you see the case.

While General MacArthur is a great military man, we are fearful that he has been in the Far East too long to catch a global view of world events. We have expressed this opinion before, and will stand on this statement.

We fear, and have feared for a long, long time that the President is being ill advised by the Acheson crowd who have stood for appeasement for the Reds. We do not classify Acheson as unpatriotic, but simply as mistaken in his ideas.

General Marshall may or may not be right. He should have a global view of the situation. Yet he says that Russia has the power to strike and is poised to attack. MacArthur, on the other hand, believes that Russia does not have the power to help Red China, either in manpower or in war materials.

Who is right? Frankly we do not know. Some one is badly mistaken. We cannot have two opposing military authorities with such different opinions, both of which are right.

We think that it is a shame and disgrace that England is taking the attitude she assumes in continuing to ship war materials to Red China, while at the same time this stuff is killing our men in Korea. She would probably change her mind if we were not carrying the load in this battle.

We have not decided who is right; or who is trying to fool the people. Both MacArthur and Truman may be charged with having made contradictory statements, both of which have proven to be wrong.

The mistakes of MacArthur cannot prove that he is a poor military leader; and likewise the errors of Truman and his staff do not prove inefficiency. The great mistake which they have made was not recalling MacArthur for a thorough understanding on Eastern problems; or at least in holding the President at Wake Island for more extensive talks which would result in political and military understanding between the two men.

So far as The News is concerned, we are not ready to jump off the deep end for either MacArthur or the President. Since Washington has been bragging openly about our weakness, as well as our strength, we are certain that The Reds are not fooled about any of the discussion which is taking place in Washington.

Let the big debate go on! No one is being hurt by this debate.

Martin Dies Seeking to Run Against Senator Connally

Any one who has observed Martin Dies must realize that he is hopeful of getting into the political fracas of 1952. Dies, a former Congressman, was forced out of the running during the Roosevelt administration. He headed the Un-American Committee in Congress and stirred up a lot of stink which has resulted in the prosecution of a number of undesirable.

We heard Martin Dies speak in January to the Texas Press Association. He is making an extensive speaking tour over Texas. As a matter of fact, Martin Dies will accept a speaking engagement at any place at any time. If you want to hear a red-hot political campaign, just write to Martin Dies and he will come running to make a speech.

Dies is one of the "I told you so boys." He quotes extensively from behind records, which were not recorded. He claims that Roosevelt, while President, forced him out of the House. He claims that he foresaw all of the crookedness which is now being uncovered in Washington.

Dies has let it be known that he is toying with the idea of getting into the race next year for the United States Senate from Texas, running against Tom Connally. Governor Allan Shivers is also a potential candidate.

One thing is sure and certain — if these three tangle in this political battle, it will be redhot from beginning to end. Connally will be on the defense, with the other two, especially Dies sniping at him all of the way.

We have talked with several men who have known Martin Dies for many years. To some he is a supreme patriot, who is doing a great job in trying to redeem his nation.

Others say that he is a forlunner, who is taking advantage of a situation over which he has or never had any control. He is good at backward predictions. Too many fellows are good at looking over their shoulders and saying, "I told you so."

We shall see what we shall see.

O'Dwyer Should Be Recalled

O'Dwyer should be recalled as our ambassador in Mexico.

We have had enough reputation, both at home and abroad, without sending as our official representative a man who's shirts are unclean. The President is noted for standing by his friends. Here at home the people may tolerate deep freezes, mink coats and the like, but our representatives abroad should be men of unpeachable character.

The world will not be altered in a day; neither will the human race. Consequently, the rabid reformers might as well sit down and take a few quiet breaths.

Big Business, which has complained for the past twenty years about high taxes, is making bigger profits than ever, after paying all taxes.

The idea that our ancestors were all good, unselfish and intelligent patriotic and prophetic, illustrates the extent of modern ignorance.

Taxpayers wonder why they should be compelled to pay for the rehabilitation of other nations.

Crime Disclosures Having Bad Effect Upon American Voters

Various crime investigations which are underway in Washington should have a sobering effect upon our American people. Unfortunately this will not be the result. This simply means that the people will have less confidence in Government that we now have. People will point their fingers at more public officials and not hesitate to call them crooks and other ugly names.

As a whole our public officials are honest people, doing the best they can in public office. There are a few rotten apples in the basket, and as a result of exposures which are taking place, we are condemning too many of these capable officials, who are keeping their records clean.

The crooks should be punished, whether they be in Canyon or in Washington; and the honest officials should be given a pat on the back and encouraged to continue their public service.

Holding public office does not make a crook of a good man. The man who assumes public office usually feels a tremendous obligation for the proper conduct of his office. The public is not often aware of the obligations which he feels, and cares less about them.

We often hear the cry "Elect good business men to public office." You hear that every political year; yet how many of us will vote for a capable business executive for any kind of public job? As a rule we will cast our vote for the man with unknown qualifications, just hoping that he will make good in his job.

As 1952 approaches, let's look over our candidates, and try to induce men of higher qualifications to accept public office.

Women Revolt Against Job of Collectors for Our Uncle Sam

The women down at Marshall have revolted against the policy of the federal government in making tax collectors out of the average run of citizens.

Under the law if you are an employer, you become a tax gatherer, collecting Social Security taxes as well as income taxes. When the system of withholding taxes was first proposed, the excuse was made that millions of workers were escaping taxes which they could not pay when March 15 rolled around.

Because there were millions of others left out of the so-called protection of Social Security, this form of taxation was introduced to occasional workers and farm labor.

This has imposed a heavy obligation upon all those who employ laborers, making them add to their bookkeeping force. Few people want to become tax collectors, even for the federal government. While a few persons might default on their income taxes, it is a pretty poor system which makes criminals out of its citizens: First, those who refuse to meet their income taxes; and those who refuse to collect such taxes.

Miss Vivien Kellums, industrialist of Connecticut, is the outstanding example of a citizen who refuses to become a tax gatherer for the benefit of Uncle Sam. She has fought the federal government through all of the courts of the land, refusing to collect the taxes for Uncle Sam.

We wonder how many folks feel the same way?

Sending Out Statements of Accounts Is Sound Business

All business firms send out monthly statements of the accounts of their customers. Furthermore, most business houses are required by their jobbers to pay their wholesale accounts either weekly, or at least twice a month. It is only sound business.

Occasionally we find persons who object to having monthly statements mailed to them by business houses. In such cases they simply do not understand sound business practices.

Business houses send statements, not only to notify their customers the amount of money due to them; but on the other hand, each person should know just how much money he owes. There is such a thing of individuals owing more than they can pay.

No one should object to such monthly statements. No one should object to these notices of account, even when it is necessary to add the postscript "Please remit."

However, these monthly statements are not a so-called "Dun." They are monthly statements of accounts which are due and payable.

New Road Opening In Palo Duro Park Set For June 22

Plans are being made for the official opening of the new highway in the Palo Duro State Park on June 22. The ribbon cutting will be held at 3 o'clock.

Participating in the ceremonies will be officials from four states as well as local officials from various parts of Texas.

According to plans made in Canyon on Thursday, this will be the biggest celebration held at the Palo Duro State Park since its official opening 20 years ago. The completion of the highway is a real event to which many citizens have devoted a lot of time and energy.

Citizens of Randall county should act as hosts to their friends throughout this area, both in this opening event, and throughout the summer months when so many people are expected to visit the Park.

Proposed That Commissioners Be Elected From Counties

It is being proposed, quite seriously, that members of Commissioners Courts be elected on a county-wide basis rather than from precincts.

Many counties have followed the plan of attempting to equalize population by changes in the boundaries of County Commissioners.

We are quite certain that there is little chance for changing to the county-wide plan. Voters of various county precincts demand, and are entitled to representations.

So far as precinct boundaries are concerned, this is a little different problem, but nevertheless a serious one. There are more people living in the large precincts of Texas than residence in the small precincts. They could change the constitution if such an amendment was presented.

People who shout about individual rights often forget that the Constitution talks about the general welfare.

3. Can you name three living vice-presidents?
4. What is a "waiver of immunity"?

8. Can you locate the Canary Islands?
9. Who was Daniel Defoe?

Winston Churchill is stipulating that the sixth volume of his war memoirs shall not be published until after the 1952 presidential campaign in U. S. Mr. Churchill is critical of President for withdrawing U. S. troops from Czechoslovakia to let the Russians take over in 1945 and is critical of General Dwight Eisenhower for not wanting to take Berlin, instead of leaving it to the Russians, when the chance was open in 1945. The wartime British Prime Minister does not want these criticisms to get deeply entangled in U. S. politics.

Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, is to be forced from office by rising pressure from Democratic Senators, who insist that a replacement must be made before 1952 for the party's sake. Paul Hoffman, former Marshall Plan Administrator, now head of the Ford Foundation, is No. 1 on the present list of proposed replacements.

General George C. Marshall will retire as Secretary of Defense well before the 1952 political campaigns. His name is regarded as too closely tied to loss of China and to firing of General Douglas MacArthur to add anything to the comfort of Democratic candidates seeking office next year. John J. McCloy, High Commissioner in Germany, is the probable successor.

Clement Attlee, Britain's Socialist Prime Minister, is discovering that the nationalization of industry is contagious. The Chinese are confiscating and nationalizing a big British oil company in China, just as the Iranians are nationalizing vast British holdings in Iran. In the British Isles the steel industry is the last one to be nationalized.

Atomic Commission raises incentives for uranium prospectors.

TAX COLLECTIONS

The total tax collections for the calendar year 1950 amounted to $39,862,735,877, which was a drop of more than $639,000,000 below the figures for the calendar year 1949. The cause of the overall decline was a slump in tax payments by corporations, which decreased by more than $2,069,764,000, but more than two-thirds of that decline was made up by increased receipts from individual income taxes and other levies.

Rodeo Team Set For NIRA Meet

Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum in Fort Worth is the scene of the third championship rodeo, sponsored by the National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association. West Texas, one of the ten top schools, is represented by Roy Reynolds, Earl Reynolds, and Bailey Reese. There will be seven performances with the first one being Wednesday night, May 17, and the last one on Sunday night.

Earl Sellers of Del Rio, internationally known rodeo producer and rancher, is producing the show this year. All the famous Sellers bucking and roping livestock will be used, including sixteen new horses he bought in Canada last summer. The stock has been on winter pasture in New Mexico, but was moved close to Fort Worth and put on feed in time to be in excellent shape for the rodeo.

The NIRA is composed of about 40 schools located in seventeen states. Bill Guest of Hardin-Simmons University is president. Members compete for trophies and prizes only, but observe professional rules. Levi Strauss and Company in San Francisco is giving a trophy to the winning team. It must be won three years in succession for permanent ownership. Sul Ross College in Alpine has won it for the past two years, and is still top college. Champion all-around cowboy last year was Harley May of Sul Ross. He and his two brothers, Clyde and Ross from Deming, New Mexico, are on the strong Sul Ross team in Fort Worth.

Two outstanding specialty acts are in Fort Worth for the big rodeo, the Hardin-Simmons University Cowboy Band and the Tyler Apache-Belles from Tyler Junior College.

According to the seasonal point award system, the following teams are competing for national awards, ranking in the order named: Sul Ross College, Alpine, Texas; New Mexico A & M College, Las Cruces, New Mexico; University of Wyoming, Laramie, Wyoming; California State Polytechnic College, San Luis Obispo, California; Colorado A & M College, Fort Collins, Colorado; University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, New Mexico; Oklahoma A & M College, Stillwater, Oklahoma; West Texas State College, Canyon, Texas; Texas A & M College, College Station, Texas; and the University of Arizona, Tucson, Arizona.

Young People

The most important thing in a business way for a young man or woman is to establish a sound basis for credit with a good bank which can take care of your financial needs in good times and in bad times.

There is a lot of satisfaction, not only in knowing the money you have on deposit is safe; but also in knowing that you can get money when you need it, and that your bank can take care of your loan until you can arrange to pay it.

You know the First National Bank can and will do both of these things; because it has been doing them for 51 years. It has come out of every depression during that time stronger, more modern in its policies and more complete in the services furnished.

We invite all young people to make your Bank their silent partner—
We can help them in many ways

Dr. Hill Speaks On the "Big Debate" at Lions Club Luncheon

Dr. J. A. Hill, past president of West Texas State, spoke to the Canyon Lions Club last Wednesday on the MacArthur-Truman debate.

He stressed the point that no one in the world knows what Russia will or will not do except Stalin himself. The basis of Communism is confusion and the more confused they can make other nations the better chance they have for spreading their doctrine.

"This country will eventually have to face Russia in a third World War unless Russia is ruined from within by internal revolt," stated Dr. Hill. Russia is ruled by approximately 10 per cent of its people who are warlike and aggressive. The rest of the people, no doubt, want peace. Communism is gradually losing its force and influence. It has lost power in Czechoslovakia, Italy, Iran, Yugoslavia and in other countries. Also, the different nationalities in Russia has tended to make it become disunited.

Dr. Hill said it was interesting to note in the Big Debate that basically both sides agree on the primary and essential objectives of this country.

MacArthur would be elected President today by the response he has received upon his arrival, but it would be a tragic mistake. MacArthur is a military genius and statesman, as proven by his organization of Japan, but he is still a military man. He is very firm in his convictions. One writer has said, "He may be wrong, but he's never in doubt." History has revealed that any country guided by military men has resulted in a military state with aggressive policies, which ultimately end in war.

Dr. Hill further stated we must have faith in our conviction to win the PEACE and to keep from getting in another war. We must have faith in our Fellow Men to keep the peace and to avoid war.

"Two things which stand out in this tragic incident are: (1) No other place on this earth could a man be brought back before the people and its officials to express his views and defend his policies or actions; to parade through the main streets of every city as a national figure except in the United States. In Russia he would be shot before sunrise or sunset. (2) The American people are educating themselves in world affairs than ever before. They are reading more newspapers, magazines, religious articles, listening to their radios and watching the Kefauver crime investigations on television, and the various other investigations."

Preceding Dr. Hill's address, the Lions Club presented Mr. and Mrs. Houston Bright a Sunbeam Coffee-maker in appreciation for their assistance in the Lions Minstrel Shows of the past.

Twenty of the Lion members were awarded pins for 100 per cent attendance for the past year at the Lions Club luncheons.

Five members of the Hereford Lions Club expressed the appreciation of Hereford for the participation of Canyon in the annual 2-T-1 District Convention in Hereford recently.

Visitors were: Lions Gil Howard, A. O. Thompson, Robert T. Thompson, Dubs Reeves and John McLean, of Hereford; Lyle Hageman, John Jackson, Bill Smith and Rotarian E. J. Cundiff, all of Canyon.

Mother's Day dinner guests in the Ed Bailey home were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Thompson of Hereford, Mrs. B. C. Taylor Sr., Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Taylor Jr. and children, Mrs. Mildred Sullivan, Mrs. Florence Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Purlow, Katie Furlow of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. ## Harper Announces Plans For Four Summer Term Educational Tours

Continuing the educational tours introduced last year for WT summer students, Dr. Ples Harper, head of the modern language department and guide for the tours, has released plans for four trips being sponsored by the college during the coming summer term.

Including trips to New Mexico and Colorado, plans call for sight-seeing expeditions and attendance at outstanding music and drama productions featuring world-famous performers.

All tours are slated for weekends. Dr. Harper said, thus allowing student travelers to miss a minimum number of classes. Travel will be by chartered bus with accommodations for 29 students. With minimum charges covering transportation and lodging, the tours are open to any student attending the college during the summer term.

First National of Amarillo Boon to Area

The oldest bank in the Panhandle, the First National Bank of Amarillo has faithfully served this territory for over 60 years and has become one of the widely and favorably known financial institutions of the Southwest. They serve the public with a complete banking service and have a reputation for being a conservative and reliable institution with all deposits guaranteed by the FDIC up to $10,000.00. Their capital and surplus is $1,340,000.00.

Since this bank's inception it has grown and developed as the community itself has prospered. By its adequate banking facilities it is playing an important part in the growth and development of the Panhandle.

Here you will find every banking facility. Their savings department is one of the most patronized services offered. They have been the mainstay for many ranchers, businesses and individuals as they are vitally interested in the progress of the agricultural and business life of our people.

All officers and directors are local citizens and are of faultless character and good judgment. Through their efforts and knowledge of banking this institution has gained its prominent position as a leader in banking circles of the Southwest.

The beautiful new building which they now occupy is, in itself, evidence of the confidence this popular bank has in the future of our rich trade territory and we are glad to publicly congratulate The First National Bank of Amarillo and V. P. Patterson, President; Chas. A. Fisk, W. D. Smiley, W. N. Durham, Jr. and Chas. J. Harris, vice presidents; W. B. Lawrence, cashier and Wyatt W. Blackburn and Gene Edwards, assistant cashiers on their splendid record of service to our people and wish for them continued success in the years ahead.

Southern Democrats, who rallied to support Mr. Truman in the MacArthur controversy, are expected to demand a louder voice in party councils as payment for their loyalty. Their aim is to establish Southern leadership in the party.

Prime Minister Clement Attlee of Great Britain is put on the spot as a result of the recall of General MacArthur. He now is obligated to give more support to the Truman policy of stopping trade with Communist China and keeping Peiping out of the United Nations.

Pyun Yung Tae, South Korean Foreign Minister, threw State Department protocol experts into a dither when he suddenly flew to this country to attend a CARE luncheon that opened a million-dollar campaign for Korean relief. No official knew of his visit and none of the usual diplomatic amenities had been arranged.

Senator Burnet R. Maybank (Dem.), of South Carolina, who took the lead in pushing through the Defense Production Act last summer, is not at all enthusiastic about the Administration's control program now. Yet he is the Senator who must be persuaded if any controls are to be tightened.

Community Invited to Attend Revival Pentecostal Church

Rev. Wilson is here, and the revival announced by the Pentecostal Holiness Church four weeks ago is now in full progress. The minister was having such a great meeting at Bethany, Okla., that he could not feel led to close it.

Rev. Wilson has unique ministry and comes highly recommended. His messages on prophecy will prove most interesting to all who hear them.

We especially urge members of all churches to come and hear this great man of God. Services every night rain or shine. Song service will start promptly at 8 o'clock at the Pentecostal Holiness Church at Fifth Ave. and 14th St., one block west of the Courthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rowan of Decatur and their daughter Mrs. Howard Burge of Dallas spent Monday night in the J. C. Dowd home. Mr. Rowan is Mrs. Dowd's brother.

Labor unions and farm groups rushing into a head-on collision over control policy. Unions won't submit to wage controls unless firm restraints are put on food prices. Farmers will have nothing to do with food-price ceilings. Between them, the two groups may scuttle the wage-price control program.

General Dwight D. Eisenhower is running into increasing difficulties in organizing a European armed force. He is noticeably disappointed at the long delay in settling the question of Mediterranean commands. The General, nevertheless, remains confident that he can organize a European force.

Andre Gromyko, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, is believed to be stalling at the Paris meeting of Big Four deputies because Russia no longer is interested in a full-dress conference of foreign ministers. Russia's major idea was to head off the arming of Western Germany, but German rearmament now has been laid aside by the Western allies themselves.

The Chinese people have almost no knowledge that the U. S. is waging a war of attrition against their Communist leaders. Communists publish no casualty lists in the Korean fighting, no matter how heavy. So far as most Chinese know, their own Government is killing more people in public executions than U. N. forces are killing in Korea.

Albania may be the next powder keg to blow up in the Balkans. The Soviet hold there is slipping and the Communist regime is reported to be a pushover. Western allies, however, have no co-ordinated policy toward Albania.

No. 2302
CITATION BY PUBLICATION
THE STATE OF TEXAS

TO: ADDISON P. McCASLIN
You are hereby commanded to appear before the Honorable District Court 47th Judicial District of Randall County at the Court House thereof, in Canyon, Texas, at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 31st day of May A. D. 1951, then and there to answer Plaintiff's Petition filed in said Court, on the 21st day of April A. D. 1951, in this cause, numbered 2302 on the docket of said court and styled Beulah McCaslin Plaintiff, vs. Addison P. McCaslin Defendant.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit as follows, to wit:

Plaintiff and defendant were married on May 16, 1947 and plaintiff seeks a divorce from defendant upon the grounds of cruel treatment by defendant towards plaintiff of such a nature to render their further living together as husband and wife insupportable and the further grounds that defendant left plaintiff for three years with intention of abandonment; plaintiff also seeks restoration of her former name, to-wit, Beulah Gray; no child nor children were born as issue of said marriage and no property rights to be adjudicated; as is more fully shown by Plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit.

The officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law, and make due return as the law directs.

ISSUED and given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Canyon, Texas, this 21st day of April A. D. 1951.

ATTEST:
(Seal) ETHEL MULLINS,
Clerk, 47th Judicial District
Court of Randall County, Texas.

river. Yes, sir, water burning. No doubt, a gas line out of sight in the muddy stream had sprung a small leak which, in some way, became ignited.

In and around Opelousas (where I spoke), there are many people of French descent. You can't be sure how to pronounce a name. For instance, "Low" rhymes with "cow."

The farmers use English until they are ready to trade for a new car or a farm, and then they start speaking French.

Across the street from a school was a blacksmith's shop. Above the door was a sign, "Children must not enter." There is such fascination for a boy to see the red-hot shoe and the flying sparks as the hammer rings out that, doubtless, the smith could have gotten little work done if he encouraged young visitors.

A man who was campaigning over Texas for a friend reached Brownsville. That night he went across the Rio Grande to Matamoros. There an urchin asked him for a nickel. Instead, he handed the Mexican boy a campaign card which told of his candidate's career, including the fact that he had been president of a county and district clerk's association.

The man entered a cafe and had just started eating one of those dinners for which the Mexico border town is famous when the front door opened and 50 tattered lads swarmed in, surrounded his table and shouted, "Viva el presidente!" The only word they could read on the card was "president" and they thought the visitor was some great personage.

So instead of having handed one boy a nickel, he had to hand 50 boys a nickel so he could go on with his dinner.

It was Philip C. Jessup, Ambassador at Large for the U. S. State Department, who stationed his secretary to eavesdrop on the Wake Island conference between President Truman and General MacArthur. The General had been assured that no record was being made of the conference.

General MacArthur feels that it is a duty he owes to those from every State and community who have served under him in his campaign during three wars to accept invitations from State legislatures and from cities to appear and explain his position. The General is receiving many invitations and is expected to appear personally in most parts of the country to tell the story of the Pacific.

Joseph Stalin is getting a transcript of the hearings on the dismissal of General MacArthur. The Russian dictator is expected to have a liberal education in U. S. policy before hearings are concluded.

President Truman is firm in his conviction that only yes men should hold high command in American military services. After he fired Admiral Louis Denfeld for expressing a viewpoint on naval policy different from that of the White House, the President thought he had taught high officials a lesson. He expects that the firing of General MacArthur and sidetracking of Lieut. Gen. Albert Wedemeyer will get the point across now.

Football Fans to Get View of 1951 Buffalo Squad

Football fans of West Texas State will have the opportunity Thursday night to see what promise lies in store for the 1951 gridgers. Coach Frank Kimbrough will put his young defending Border Conference champions onto the turf at Buffalo Stadium in the big intrasquad game winding up spring drill. The public is invited with kickoff time 8 o'clock.

Many questions will be waiting for answers when the squads collide. Who will replace the potent running attack of graduating Bill Cross and Charlie Wright? Which quarterback will move into the slot vacated by Gene Mayfield, now a fulltime tutor for the Buffs? Who will assume the punting chores so ably handled last season by lanky Frank Wise? What is the strength of the line?

Coach Kimbrough lost 14 seniors from his championship team of last fall and 2 more have joined the services. Also, 12 of last fall's promising freshmen joined the services in the 'mad-rush' last January leaving only 16 fresh moving into varsity ranks.

A total of 26 varsity lettermen are available but three of those, Kenneth Echols, Sam Raburn and Walker Bateman, are not out this spring.

Toughest of all problems in the Buff rebuilding program is the selection of a quarterback for the 1951 eleven. Four candidates have been pushing the race during spring workouts with a leading selection not apparent yet. Lonnie Rice, junior from Dimmitt, and Joe Means, senior from Phillips, have the nod as far as seniority goes. However, sophomores Bob Lane, Turkey, and Tommy Sherrill, Sudan, are in the thick of the fight. Action of these four in the spring game should give Kimbrough something more definite to plan on during the summer.

Prior to the game the athletic department will be host to members of the West Texas Activities Association, past holders of season tickets, coaches, and fans at a 'Kick-off Supper' in Buffalo Courts at 6 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Pyeatt and son, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mathus and family of Canadian, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Robinson and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson and children spent Mother's Day in the E. C. Robinson home.

Newton Harrell Showed Picture on Recent Travels

Newton Harrell was the speaker at the Rotary Club luncheon Tuesday, discussing the recent trip which he and Mrs. Harrell made to Hawaii, New Zealand and Australia. Dr. E. J. Cundiff was in charge of the program and presented the speaker.

New Zealand is the Utopia for the stock raiser, stated Mr. Harrell. 400 pounds of beef is produced annually per acre. It is semi-tropical climate, no winters, few flies, about 70 inches of rain annually. There are 30 million sheep in an area the size of Arizona. Agriculture started slowly in New Zealand. Land which originally sold at $5 per acre is now priced at $200 per acre, with none for sale.

In Australia the rivers which start in the foothills spread over a large area, making natural irrigation. The people know more of the United States than we know about Australia. The people are very grateful for what we have done for them. They are our friends. The capitol of Cambra is about the size of Canyon, and the capitol building is located five miles from town, with no buildings around it.

There is no land for sale, as the state leases it. The income tax is about the same as ours, but no capital gain tax.

The people are rough and ready, but have high standards and morals. The states assess no taxes, with the federal government collecting all taxes and refunding taxes to the states. There are three systems of railroads, all different gauges, built by the three states. The only highway was built by the Americans while getting ready to attack the Japs.

Australia is rapidly developing, with 6 million tons of steel being produced annually. A new auto plant is being built.

Visitors were: H. F. Railback of Dalhart; J. A. McLean of Pampa; Jimmie Gammill of Luder; Earl O'Keefe, Ed Shaw, Bill Dooley, E. Rancher, Ken Bell, John McCarty, Forrest Barnes, all of Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Standley returned Saturday from a ten day trip to California, where they visited his sister and husband Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kelley in San Gabriel. Mrs. G. L. Plaxco of Decatur accompanied them on the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn R. Haynes and son Jackie of Santa Fe, New Mexico, spent the week-end in the Marion Higdon home. Mrs. Higdon and Mr. Haynes are brother and sister.

Baptist Chapel Continues Growth

Calvary Baptist Chapel, a mission of First Baptist Church, began services in April 1950, and the following month Tom Watson of Portales, New Mexico, was secured as pastor of the small congregation, most of whom came from First Baptist Church to fill places as teachers and officers. The small brick tile building was built by First Baptist Church in early 1950 at the corner of Fourth Avenue and Sixth Street.

During its first year of operation the Chapel witnessed addition of 54 people to church membership, and on the closing Sunday of its first year Sunday School attendance was 104 and Training Union was 101. A. M. Cunningham is Sunday School superintendent and J. C. Newton is Training Union Director. They also have Woman's Missionary Society and Brotherhood organizations, and a Wednesday night prayer meeting is regularly conducted. The Chapel continues its growth, and it is believed it will be strong enough to be organized into a self-supporting Baptist Church by the end of the summer of 1951.

MOTHER-IN-LAW CLUB INSTALLS NEW OFFICERS

The Mother-in-Law Club met with Mrs. G. W. Cox on Thursday, May 10. President Mrs. G. B. Combs conducted the meeting. The meeting opened with the group singing "Silver Threads Among the Gold" with Mrs. Mary Burtz at the piano. Mrs. I. M. Steen, chairman of the nominating committee, presented the following names:

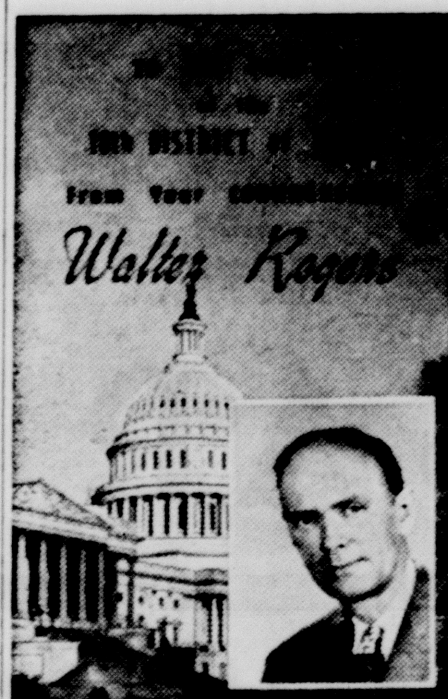

president, Mrs. G. B. Combs vice-president, Mrs. Rae Walters secretary, Mrs. Fred Marshall corresponding secretary, Mrs. Mae Johnson treasurer, Mrs. T. T. Fain chaplain, Mrs. R. T. Bowman. Mrs. C. C. Cunningham of Amarillo installed the officers.

Mr. Cox showed the first and other pictures of the Club that he has made with his moving camera. Also he made pictures of the group and guests.

The hostess served punch, cookies and candy to guests — Mrs. C. C. Cunningham, Mrs. T. H. Rogers, Mrs. Vera Cusick, and Mrs. J. D. Walker of Amarillo — and to members — Mesdames W. H. Sparks, W. L. Rice, John Roark, T. V. Slack, E. B. Anthony, Rae Walters, C. W. Dunn, Jeanette Robbins, W. S. Myers, Ward, Addie Heifer, Mary Burtz, Mae Johnson, John Hilgenfeld, G. B. Bourland, C. H. Stratton, J. M. Breittling, E. C. Penick, I. M. Steen, G. B. Combs, George Webb, Fred Marshall, R. M. Gibbs, Moore, C. V. Anderson, J. C. Hutchinson, I. C. McDaniel, E. C. Hawes, T. T. Fain, P. L. Pitt, R. T. Bowman.

About three-fourths of the criticism of the church and preachers comes from those who know they are doing what the church condemns.

Every citizen can contribute something to the spiritual growth and development of Randall County by being loyal to the church of his choice.

You will recall that a few weeks ago I told you that a showdown with England was long overdue and should not be very far in the future. Events in the past few days have confirmed that information and the work of Congress toward that end. This will develop measurably and will in my opinion result in England recognizing the folly of her ways and in cleaning her own linen. If she fails to do this, you may well expect some effective and immediate action by the Congress in addition to the legislation that this week passed the Senate. Trade with China by countries accepting aid from this country is the most intolerable thing I have ever heard of, and India can certainly expect this point to be raised and prosecuted fully when the question of sending food grains to India comes before the House. If I have my way, this country is not going to furnish food or any other materials or commodities to any country where they may be used for the purpose of spilling the blood of our youth. Certainly there is a humanitarian problem concerning starving peoples, but in my opinion this must be weighed from a realistic standpoint and so far as I am concerned will be so weighed. The question of whether or not to send food grain to India could be much more serious than realized at first glance. Whether this is to be a grant or is to be paid for by India will be a hotly debated question. This operation, if carried out, would involve an expenditure of approximately 200 million dollars by this country, whether it be on a grant or loan basis. You will recall that in most of the loan transactions we have had with other countries, the notes are still unpaid. The Committee on Veterans' Affairs, of which I am a member, is now considering legislation that would be of great benefit to many disabled veterans and their dependents, to the widows and children of veterans and to dependent parents of veterans. Some reasonable benefits could be afforded these people by an additional expenditure of less than 200 million dollars, and in many cases would mean the difference between some of these people living in poverty or having enough to eat, even a sufficient amount to wear. In this period of definite economy trends on the part of Congress many of us could well be driven to an absolute choice between sending the grain to India or providing these small additional benefits to these folks who are the victims of wars. I am wondering what the people would want me to do in such a case. I think I know, but I would like to hear from you on the question. I will tell you frankly that the choice would not be too hard for me; I would help the veterans.

APPROPRIATIONS: The departments, boards, bureaus and agencies are becoming greatly concerned over the many sizable cuts that the House is making in the non-defense appropriations. Many of these appropriations bills have been amended on the House floor to provide that for every four employees who are released by a department during the coming fiscal year only one employee can be replaced. This simply means that if a department loses 100 employees during the fiscal year, there will only be 25 that can be employed to take the place of these 100. This is intended to stop the growing Federal payroll, and although it is not as effective as I would like to see it, it is at least a step in the right direction. It was placed on legislation by former Congresses but has always been taken off before final passage of the appropriations bills. Whether or not it will remain in the law upon final passage by this Congress, I do not know, but I will say there is going to be a terrible fight before it is taken out.

WESLEY BIBLE CLASS HAS DINNER WITH MRS. SHUMAN

The Women's Wesley Bible Class of the Methodist Church met on Wednesday, May 9, with Mrs. C. Shuman for their May dinner. After the bountiful repast Mrs. R. E. Foster entertained with a travelogue of her trip to the coast.

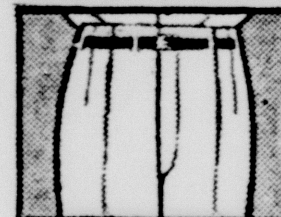

Those present, besides the hostess and Mrs. Foster, were Mesdames Hungate, Wiseman, Gore and Miss M. Moss Richardson. A letter was written to Mrs. DeGraffenried of Walla Walla, Washington, a former member of the class. Mrs. I. C. Jenkins, Mrs. McGehee and Miss Sallie McGehee did not attend because of the serious illness of Mrs. L. B. Rogers, their sister.

Mildred Groves, Clayton Freeman Marry in Chapel

On Sunday, May 6, Memorial Chapel on the campus of West Texas State was the scene of the marriage of Miss Mildred Elizabeth Groves to Clayton Freeman, son of Mrs. J. M. Dean of 2006 First Avenue. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Groves of 207 Maryland, Amarillo, and lived at 1904 8th Street, Canyon, at the time of her marriage.

Rev. H. L. Thurston, pastor of the First Methodist Church, read the double ring ceremony. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Oscar Wise played "Lieberstrum" by Liszt on the Hammond organ. Accompanied by Mrs. Wise at the organ, Oscar Wise played "Etude in E Minor" by Chopin and "I Love You Truly" by Bond on the cello. Mrs. Wise played the traditional wedding march. Mrs. Edna Rives, wearing a lavender reverie dotted swiss dress with a gardenia corsage, presided at the bride's book.

Vows were exchanged before an altar flanked with candelabra and baskets of white calla lilies. Palms and candelabra holding white tapers formed the background.

Candle lighters Mrs. Vonell

Hughes, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Lassie Ashford, sister of the groom, were dressed in identical ballerina-length dresses of pastel pink and blue reverie dotted swiss with matching hats and white nylon gloves. They carried Marconi daisy candle nosegays. Attending her sister as matron-of-honor, Mrs. Evelyn Soule of Lubbock was dressed in pastel yellow reverie dotted swiss with matching hat and attached shoulder length veil. She carried a nosegay of yellow Marconi daisies. As flower girl four year old Margaret Ann Caste, cousin of the bride, was dressed in pastel green dotted swiss with matching half hat and attached shoulder veil.

Pay Hand of Canyon served as best man. Ushers were Earl Rives, uncle of the bride, and Fate Freeman, brother of the groom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white brocade organza, fashioned with a fitted bodice and a full skirt with a peplum. The fitted sleeves extended into points over the wrist; the collar, peplum, and sleeves were ornamented with Valenciennes lace. Her fingertip length veil fell from a cap trimmed with tiny roses. She carried a white Bible topped with a bouquet of sweetheart rosebuds centered with a white orchid. For something old and borrowed she carried a linen handkerchief belonging to her grandmother Mrs. T. W. Rives.

The bride's mother was attired in a dress of pastel rose crepe complimented with white accessories and a carnation corsage. The mother of the groom chose a dress of aqua blue accented with black accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The reception honoring the bridal party was held following the ceremony in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pay Hand at 1108 7th. The bride's table was laid with a lace cloth, a gift of her grandmother. Mrs. Earl Rives, aunt of the bride, cut the cake. Mrs. Helen Sanchez and George Groves served punch.

For a wedding trip to Colorado, the bride traveled in grey gabardine suit with pink and white accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid. After May 20 the couple will be at 1904 8th, Canyon.

Mrs. Freeman was graduated from Amarillo High School, Amarillo Junior College, Northwest Texas Hospital, and attended West Texas State. She was a member of the Sande Band, the Badger Band and West Texas Buffalo Band. She is now employed as a registered nurse at Neblett Hospital.

Mr. Freeman served two years with the armed forces and is now employed in the maintenance department of West Texas State.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Gloyna of Lockney, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Freeman, J. N. and Othella from Tahoka.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hamblen and daughter Mrs. C. F. Rogers, accompanied by his sister Mrs. Bradley of Elmore City, Okla., returned Saturday night from an extended trip on which they visited relatives in New Mexico, Arizona and California.

Mitchell Electric Co. Reliable Concern

Each year home owners as well as business concerns are hearing of the added comfort both summer and winter as well as the economy to be had in insulating their buildings, that is why Mitchell Electric Co. 119 W. 9th in Amarillo have been responsible for many of the insulations installations in this area. The materials they use pass every laboratory test and are resistant to fire, mice, termites, roaches and prevents sweating of walls. It reduces temperatures in summer for 10 to 20 degrees and reduces fuel costs in winter from 20 to 40 per cent and, therefore, pays for itself in a comparatively short time. A phone call to Mitchell Electric Co., 6570 in Amarillo. 6570 will bring one of their insulation engineers who will make a survey of your property and make necessary recommendations and cost estimates without obligation. The job may be financed under F. H. A. with 10 per cent down and 30 months on the balance.

Mitchell Electric Co. also has one of the most complete stocks of commercial, residential and industrial lighting fixtures in the Panhandle and are glad to recommend the proper fixtures for efficient lighting whether it is for one room or a large installation for the entire building.

This popular Amarillo insulating and lighting fixture concern is no stranger to our community they have made many friends in the area. At present they are doing the insulating of the new First National Bank building in Canyon.

We highly recommend the Mitchell Electric Co. to our many readers and compliment them on their good record for quality, service and fair dealings.

Sanitation One of Major Problems of Texas States Cox

"Environmental sanitation is the public health term for clean, safe housekeeping whether it applies to a private home and its surroundings or to towns and cities. Among other things, it insures safe drinking water, proper garbage and sewage disposal, the safe service of wholesome food including milk, rat and insect control, and general cleanliness of the premises. However, for environmental sanitation to be effective, it is essential that not only public health officials but the citizens living in their respective homes or operating establishments serving the public cooperate wholeheartedly," declared Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"Consider, for example, the seasonal housefly hazard. It has been determined that 120 eggs are laid by a single female at one time and that a generation is produced every ten days at summer temperature. Thus, the possibility of reproduction during the warm months of a single fly runs into many millions. While the housefly does not bite, it is dangerous because it breeds and feeds upon both filth and food.

"Again, rats are the source of several diseases of man including plague, typhus fever, infectious jaundice, and trichinosis, to mention some of the more important ones. Homes can be made comparatively ratproof by removing rubbish and garbage accumulations, and by closing avenues of access. Approved poisons and traps should be employed when a real problem presents itself.

"Removal of containers of stagnant water such as tin cans and barrels will do much to eliminate the mosquito for householders. The householder needs to devote more seasonal attention to mosquito eradication than he is today if this is to be properly controlled.

"In general, good and thorough housekeeping, inside and out, is the personal and civic duty of every home dweller. It not only adds to the pleasure of living and removes disease hazards, but increases the appearance of one's surroundings."

POLLYANA CUMMINS

Special Education Sunshine Student

Described as a ray of sunshine and happiness, Pollyanna Cummins is a shining example of those helped by Special Education.

"Pana" as she is lovingly called by her three brothers and one sister, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Cummins. She was stricken with polio about the middle of October last year. During her second week at the Plainview Hospital, a Special Education teacher, Mrs. Cecil E. Brown, arrived to continue Polly's studies for the duration of her five weeks stay.

Ten days after Polly was able to return home, Mrs. Gladys Dixon, Special Education teacher in Canyon Grade School, resumed Polly's work.

Occupants of the hospital named Polly "Sunshine" because of her happy ways. Doctors concerned say that Polly is their best patient. Her sweet disposition and laughing eyes make her name fit perfectly. The wonderful family relationship in her home makes Polly an understanding, loving person. A good worker, Polly, is steady, friendly, and courageous. She likes to read and work jigsaw puzzles, but pot-plants are her hobby. When she became ill, one of her plants nearly died; when Polly came home, the plant began to flourish and has grown almost out of its container. Proud of every recognition, Polly has a large box of keepsakes.

Eagle's Tale Staff Reminisces As Senior Edition Draws Near

As time for final Eagle's Tale publication draws near, staff members realize that they have become rudimentary journalists, and they have memories of a pleasant year of service to their school.

The highest goal the staff strived to attain was to make each week's issue better than the preceding one. With the assistance of capable Miss Alice Payne the group overcame bad points one by one, and the Eagle's Tale improved weekly.

During the first half-term editor was Bettie Slagle, and her assistant was Jerry Williams. Sports-editing duties were delegated to Claude Money, and feature-social editor was Merle Bullard. Geneva Gressett handled the publication's business dealings.

Staff was entirely changed at second semester's beginning, with one exception; Merle remained feature-social editor. Senior Barbara McDougal became editor; Claude took over assistant's duties; Richard the Junior-Senior Banquet by Mrs. Harley Burrus, and the owner may regain them by getting in touch with her.

Notes

The following paragraphs are excerpts from "A Trip Through the Year with the Fourth Grade," edited by Miss Sarah Thompson's class.

ALL ABOUT OUR FLOWERS

The fourth grade has a collection of flowers. We have geraniums, dew-plants, snake plants, oxalis, sultanna, hen and chickens, Jacob's coat, pineapple, and pitcher plants. There are lots of others that I can't think of just now. Well, I guess that's all.

Wendall Miller

PLAYS WE'VE SEEN

We saw two plays in the college auditorium. They were Beauty and the Beast and Hansel and Gretel and The Wizard of Oz. We saw them in the Branding Iron Theatre. It was put on by boys and girls who live in Canyon. They were all very good.

Cathryn Ann Morris

READING AND LIBRARY SHARING

We have three reading groups. The groups named themselves the Buffaloes, Blue Birds, and Robins. We read stories about things and people everywhere. We go to the library twice a week. Our librarian is Mrs. Harter. We share stories, poems, and facts with the group when we return to our room.

Ann Jarrett

the group saw "Brave Bulls" at the State Theater. With Spanish Club sponsor, Miss Alice Payne, and chaperons, those attending were: Dorothy Neblett, Jerry Martin, Billie Graham, Joe White, Alan Ray Hawkins, Hugh Greiner, Charles Bolling, Jerry Downing, Steve McKee, A. C. Wimberly, James Joyner, Willie Mac Weaver, Dick Dawdy, Lynn Williams, Clifton Newberry.

Sanders, sports editor; and Florence Coffee, business manager and proof-reader.

Typists Bullard, Coffee, Money, Gibson, Williams, and McDougal rendered invaluable service to non-typists, as all copy must be typewritten before it is submitted for publication.

Highlights of the journalism year included the District Nine PHSPA convention held at West Texas State College March 17 in which Florence was a candidate for the Dorinda E. Bond Award; Richard received honorable mention in sports writing. Florence and Richard also represented Canyon in the regional journalism contests at Lubbock April 21. The team won third place for CHS, and Florence was second in individual ratings. This entitled her to enter the State Interscholastic League meet in Austin May 4-5.

The year in retrospect has been a good one in spite of even the most critical moments, and the staff can safely say that publishing a school paper is fun!

Journalists Honor Marilyn Alice Payne

MISS ALICE PAYNE

To express our deepest appreciation, we, the staff members of The Eagle's Tale wish to dedicate this edition of the paper to a wonderful sponsor, Miss Marilyn Alice Payne, who has spent many long, tedious hours teaching us to copy-read and to write features, news stories, editorials — those things which must be taught and practiced before publishing a paper.

We will especially remember her for the good times she has made possible by being a friend as well as a marvelous sponsor. Those times we laughed over a clever feature or a wise quip made by one of the staff are only a small part of the fun we had publishing the paper under her guidance. We also remember the confidence she placed in us even when others criticized.

The trip to the Globe-News building will always be a remembrance of a half day well spent. The Panhandle High School Press Association convention was lots of fun and also was beneficial to the group.

Miss Payne came to Canyon High at the beginning of the 1950-51 school year from West Texas High; she teaches two sections of English II, a Spanish I class, and a Spanish II class in addition to journalism.

She received her bachelor's degree from West Texas State, where she majored in English and minored in Spanish; Colorado College of Education granted her her master's degree.

In this, our next to last edition, we cannot find just the words to express our great feeling for our sponsor. The staff will always be indebted to Miss Payne not only for her teaching ability but for her friendship to each member of The Eagle's Tale staff.

Donning straw hats and faded blue jeans, the junior class, lost in piles of sweet-smelling hay, ventured out to Wright's for a hay-ride picnic May 11. Despite itchy backs where hand - fulls of hay were dumped down shirt collars, juniors acclaimed it the year's best party.

A touch of spring time was imported into the homemaking department when home economics II girls honored friends and faculty at a May Day luncheon. It has and will always be the policy of this reliable concern to give their customers as much for their money as possible and for this reason they have priced their new livestock oiler at $59.00 f. o. b. their plant.

TRUE TO FORM

A group of Chicagoans were showing a visiting Texan the town. "What do you think of our stock yards?" they asked.

"Man, we got brandin' corrals in Texas bigger'n this."

"Well," they asked further, "what do you think of the imposing skyscrapers of the Chicago skyline?"

"Why, man, we got tombstones in Boot Hill bigger than those."

That night they put a brace of snapping turtles in his bed. When he turned down the covers and asked what they were, he was told, "Illinois bedbugs."

He peered at them a moment. "So they are," he agreed. "Young 'uns, ain't they?"

MOTIVE

"You say you came to the city to look for work. I put it to you there was another, a stronger motive, that brought you all that distance."

"Well," hesitated the defendant, "there was."

"Ah!" cried the young barrister, triumphantly, "And what was that?"

"A locomotive!"

With the idea in mind of good entertainment for the whole family—from the small kids to grandma the pictures to be seen at the Palo Duro are outstanding. The drive-in theatre, since its inception has been constantly increasing in popularity because of the extreme comfort afforded the family attendance, especially those with small children and babies, you don't have to dress up and if junior wiggles or the baby cries there isn't the disturbance to others as would be experienced in the conventional theatre.

The rapidly increase in popularity of the drive-in theatre can be attributed to aggressive operators like Harold Wilson of the Palo Duro who has the comfort and entertainment of his patrons in mind at all times and leaves nothing undone to accomplish his goal of complete patron satisfaction.

Writer Disagrees on MacArthur Case

Canyon, May 9: Dear Mr. Warwick: Have just read your editorials in today's issue of The News. I am sure glad that you know why General MacArthur was fired. No one else has given a conclusive answer; not even Harry Truman or George Marshall; all three reasons do not agree in any way whatsoever, but you are the only person I ever heard say it was because the General disobeyed orders.

Marshall said today it was because it might break the coalition with some of our Allies if General MacArthur wasn't fired; and who are the Allies we might lose? Russia, England, India, and last but not least, Red China, itself. If you think we aren't coddling Red China it is because you don't read or listen to the radio, and we are supplying England with supplies that go straight to China and Russia as well as other of Russia's satellite countries. Yet Douglas MacArthur was supposed to keep on leading our American boys to their death without being able to tell them why they were called upon to make such a sacrifice. General MacArthur spoke that on the floor of Congress and its true.

George Marshall said today the General was fired because he wrote a personal letter to Joe Martin. Fulton Lewis read a full transcript of that letter over the air this evening and there's nothing in the letter of a disobedient trend in military policy.

It makes every drop of my Irish blood boil when some one has the nerve to openly criticize General MacArthur. The American people aren't being fooled by anybody and they gave their cry of anguish to the world when this thing happened.

I don't think you can take comfort from the fact that General MacArthur is out of politics. He is in, and whose side is he on? He is on the side of the boys who are still fighting in Korea and their loved ones back home. This puts him in politics whether he "chooses to run" or not, but he won't be carrying the ball for Truman, Acheson & Co. and in my judgment that's why he was fired.

Mrs. John L. Williams

Thanks Mrs. Williams for your letter. However, you are jumping at wild conclusions in charging that we are in the Truman crowd as opposed to the MacArthur crowd. We are trying to find the real reason for the firing of MacArthur, and refuse to accept your final statement that he was fired because he refused to carry the ball for Truman. We have always held MacArthur in the highest esteem. He is big enough to fight his own battles, and is doing a fine job of it. We do not profess to know what the American people will say about MacArthur in a political way; he has taken himself out of the running, regardless of what you say. No less a personage than the President made the original charge that he fired MacArthur because he refused to obey orders. Whether this is correct or not remains to be seen. The method was shabby, regardless of the cause. We are still awaiting the development in this case; and the lives being lost in Korea are too precious for any person to cry to high heaven either for or against MacArthur or Truman until all of the facts are in.

Milligan Opens Caliche Crusher In Canyon

As a substantial contributor to progress in the Panhandle, J. Lee Milligan located at 2932 W. 6th in Amarillo has established a well-deserved reputation for dependability and efficiency in excavating, road work, ditching and trucking, dragline work, terracing, bulldozer work and general sewer construction. The Milligan organization use only the most modern equipment on their jobs, which is kept in top condition and repair at all times, and have adequate units in reserve to prevent expensive delays caused by unavoidable breakdowns. Their crews of skilled operators and earth-moving workmen are thoroughly experienced and at all times supervised by Mr. Milligan personally.

Milligan has served the farmers well in this area in all types of terracing, digging of ponds, lakes and water storage tanks.

J. Lee Milligan has opened a modern Caliche crushing plant in Canyon. This plant will not only serve his own needs for crushed caliche but business is solicited from other contractors and the public. The caliche will be crushed to the size specified and delivered to the job as required. There has been a need for such a modern plant in this locality and we know of no one that could offer better and more reliable service than J. Lee Milligan.

Many cities, towns and counties as well as the farmers and general contractors have called on this qualified general dirt contractor for his services and like their open and above-board methods of dealing as well as the efficient manner in which the work is prosecuted. Whether it is by contract or a fixed fee, cost plus basis or by the hour Mr. Milligan delivers quality work at the lowest price possible consistent with the job at hand. He is to be congratulated on his smooth functioning organization and the part he has played in the development of this entire area.

WT Dairy Class Takes Field Trip

Members of the advanced dairy class inspected the farm belonging to Neil Downing Monday morning. Downing is a former member of the agriculture department here, and he now has the reputation of producing some of the best Holsteins in the Randall county area.

Particular attention was paid by the class to the way Downing stores silage underground. Silage is packed into a trench about ten feet deep, then covered with a layer of bundles and several inches of dirt. A tractor is driven over the silage to pack it well. The silage improves when the amount of pressure is increased.

Downing stated that a dairy herd inspector had visited his farm, unexpectedly, once a month to run a milk and feed test on all of his cows. This test enables him to dispose of his poor producers and to give better feed to the good cows.

Frank Phillips, head of the agriculture department said, "Visiting the Downing farm is typical of our trips. We often use the college bus to take boys to the better class of neighboring farms for the purpose of more practical lab work."

This session of the Legislature has set a mark for succeeding ones to shoot at.

As Governor Allan Shivers said, the members got down to work in a hurry. They were as sincere and hard-working as any the governor has seen in a rather long career in state government.

Speaker of the House Reuben Senterfitt observed that he had never seen any legislature like this one for facing its problems squarely, without beating around the bush.

Obviously, the legislators were willing to accept their responsibility and to take necessary action, regardless of political pressure or other influence. A few examples:

State expenditures have been held within the bounds of the 1949-1950 budget, despite an enormous demand for increased salaries and services.

By making the best use of calculations made by the Legislature Council and the Legislature Budget Board, and by putting in long hours in committee hearing, the Legislature had more planning behind it when it came to working on appropriations, and the result was more intelligent solution of the spending problem.

The tax question was attacked directly. The House of Representatives set the pattern by passing two bills without delay. The Senate, in its turn, went to work seriously on taxes.

The motor transportation problem was solved by passing a law to restrict overloading, and another to give trucks a higher legal load in Texas.

The redistricting task was done. Other legislatures — since 1920 — have refused to undertake this chore.

One reason for prompt action in the House was early appointment of committees by Speaker Senterfitt.

But credit for the commendable session must go generally to all members, who showed a willingness to get down to business, and a determination to adjourn as quickly as possible after the 120-day deadline.

As the Legislature wound toward the end of its session, interest in the next state election began to grow.

Governor Shivers revealed that he has been receiving petitions asking to run against Tom Connally for the U. S. Senate. Former Congressman Martin Dies of Orange has also been looking forward to the senate race.

Should you want to serve a complete Chinese dinner at home and will phone 2-1466 your orders will be prepared to take out and ready for you when you call for them. It is most convenient and unique to serve this delicious oriental food in your home.

The very next time you are preparing to dine out be sure and go to Canton Cafe at 125 E. 5th street in Amarillo and you will be highly pleased with the deliciously different food, good service and reasonable prices. You can, of course, have your favorite beverage with your meal.

We congratulate Mr. Woon on the splendid way in which he operates this outstanding establishment and wish him continued success in the future.

If Shivers goes after the senate position, there will certainly be a free-for-all in the governor's race, with likely contenders being Attorney General Price Daniel and Land Commissioner Bascom Giles.

Lieutenant Governor Ben Ramsey has told friends that he has no political ambition, but his entry into the governor's race would surprise nobody.

Secretary of State John Ben Shepperd may try for the attorney general's job.

It may seem early to start thinking about politics — but a successful campaign gets to be a bigger job every two years.

To be elected, it takes a lot of planning, fence-building, speech-making, and just plain moving around and meeting the folks.
